

- 6.) DRAWING: Draw a Colorful illustration of 1 or 2 of your favorite characters, with lots of detail. 11x17 Poster Board.
- 7.) BOOK COVER: Make a detailed new cover (shown in class) of your book. Include this information: book summary; recommendations from people who have read the book; an inside dedication page; and draw a new FRONT COVER; Please create your own design!
- 8.) FLIP BOOK: Make a "Flip" book of the events happening in order from your book. Make it colorful and detailed!
- 9.) SEQUEL: Write a 1-2 page sequel for your book of where your book leaves off. You must also present this with a book cover of what that sequel book's cover might look like. If your book already has a sequel, create a new one up!!Make sure to proofread.
- 10.) NEW ENDING: Write a new ending for your book on 1-2 pages, and share it with the class. Also, draw a picture on poster board of a scene from that new endingMake sure to proofread too!
- 11.) POSTER: Make a colorful poster (shown in class) of the book's storyline, of your favorite scenes from the book. 11x17 Poster board.
- 12.) POWER POINT PRESENTATION/PREZI: Make a Power Point Presentation/Prezi of at least 10 slides. Each slide must relate to the book in some way, and must explain the slide with a picture as well.
- 13.) PLAY/SKIT/MOVIE: Create a Movie, Skit, or Play highlighting a specific scene from the book. You must act in the movie or play, and write the script to turn in. The movie or play must be appropriate, and you may film this project as well. Friends may be invited to help you in your project, yet, this is your grade only!